

The Parent Project 2019

Learn ways to build stronger relationships with your child, this Saturday.

Could you use some new tools in your parenting toolbox? We can help.

Neighborhood Leadership Institute is hosting The Parent Project, a six-week course designed to help improve your relationship with your child by learning proven strategies from the mundane to the more difficult circumstances your family may face.

You are invited to join this Saturday's session take part in discussions including topics such as. . .

Understanding Our Children

- Strong Willed vs. Compliant Children
- Love and Affection
- Influence vs. Control

Addressing Problematic Behavior

- Expectations and Feelings
- Dealing with Emotional Behavior
- Preparing to Address Problematic Behavior

A Parent's Formula for Success

- Active Supervision
- Today's Media and Technology
- Creating Structure and Active Supervision
- Developing Homework Behavior

Session Dates

The Parent Project course runs in a six-week rotation, and you can start at any time.

Location

Sessions will take place at Neighborhood Leadership Institute, 5246 Broadway Avenue at the historic Broadway United Methodist Church.

To register

Contact Cheryl Mays, phone (216) 658-1361 or email cheryl@neighborhoodleadership.org.

Cost

The program is free thanks to support from St. Lukes Foundation and United Way. Brunch is provided.