Cleveland

January - May, 2022

Presented in partnership by

The Maxine Goodman Levin
College of Urban Affairs

Neighborhood Leadership Institute is proud to present the 38th class of Neighborhood Leadership Cleveland (NLC), in partnership with Cleveland State University. The purpose of NLC is to cultivate new and experienced leaders to gain confidence, learn skills, and use their voice to actively participate in effecting change. Participants will come away from Class 38 with a deeper sense of their own purpose as leaders, a greater appreciation for the assets of their neighborhoods, and a lifetime connection to the Institute's network of more than 1,200 other grassroots leaders. Together, they'll share a common goal—to improve the quality of life for communities in Greater Cleveland through collective leadership and engagement.

Neighborhood Leadership Cleveland

—our flagship training since 1994.

Course Overview

NLC is a 19-week course held January through May, 2022. Classes will be held on Thursday evenings from 6-9 p.m. Dinner is served at 5:30 pm. Sessions will include a leadership retreat, group projects, coaching and neighborhood tours.

Key components of the class include:

- Personal strengths and self-awareness
- Your place in history
- Identifying tools and resources
- Understanding systems
- Managing conflict and change
- Power, privilege and justice

Leaders are equipped with the skills to build better relationships, communicate effectively, build teams, lead groups, frame and present ideas, develop projects, set goals, and create change. We explore the fundamental leadership constructs of self-awareness, community, ethics, building power, government and system structures, power and privilege, equity vs. equality, and how community leadership impacts all of these.

Special Notice Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, class sessions will be held in a hybrid format, with both in-person and virtual gatherings. Internet connectivity is required.

Creating a culture of support, skill development and personal growth.

Objectives

As a participant in this class, you will learn five fundamental elements of grassroots leadership—

1. Clarifying your purpose.
2. Fostering authentic relationships.
3. Leading with others through collaboration.
4. Cultivating accountability in yourself and others.
5. Transformation—Inspiring and being inspired by change!

Outcomes

Participants graduate from NLC feeling empowered to make the change they believe is necessary. . . from the ground up.

As a graduate, you will return to your community with

- An increased sense of your civic power & responsibility.
- A better understanding of leadership in the context of your existing work.
- A greater capacity to recognize and use tools for change.
- Ongoing support and mentoring through the Institute's alumni network.

Neighborhood Leadership Institute is committed to investing in our region's leaders by providing tools for change and, most importantly, the support to move forward with that change.
