A resource for the whole community!

for seniors

for families

Schools as Neighborhood Resources opens six Cleveland school buildings for out of school time three nights a week, November through March 2022. Programs include recreation and enrichment programs for all ages.

All SNR sites are open Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights from 6-8 p.m., except Sunbeam, which operates from 5-7:30 p.m.

Visit neighborhoodleadership.org/schools-as-neighborhood-resources/ or stop by your site for more details.

With current health conditions and concerns present, participants will be subject to strict social distancing and hygiene practices at all locations.

6 SNR sites serve Cleveland neighborhoods with unique,

Over the program's 20-year history, SNR sites have provided more than recreation and educational opportunities for youth and families in neighborhoods without city recreation centers. SNR sites offer safe space and common ground for community residents. Patrons use the sites to share ideas, discuss challenges, receive training, hold meetings, and build community from the ground up.
